DENTSPLY International Inc. and Subsidiaries

NOTES TO UNAUDITED INTERIM CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The accompanying unaudited interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") and the rules of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The year-end consolidated balance sheet data was derived from audited financial statements, but does not include all disclosures required by US GAAP. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair statement of the results for interim periods have been included. Results for interim periods should not be considered indicative of results for a full year. These financial statements and related notes contain the accounts of DENTSPLY International Inc. and Subsidiaries ("DENTSPLY" or the "Company") on a consolidated basis and should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company's most recent Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

NOTE 1 – SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies of the Company, as applied in the interim consolidated financial statements presented herein are substantially the same as presented in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013, except as may be indicated below:

Accounts and Notes Receivable

The Company sells dental and certain healthcare products through a worldwide network of distributors and directly to end users. For customers on credit terms, the Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of those customers' financial condition and generally does not require collateral from them. The Company establishes allowances for doubtful accounts for estimated losses resulting from the inability of its customers to make required payments based on historical averages of aged receivable balances and the Company's experience in collecting those balances, customer specific circumstances, as well as changes in the economic and political environments. The Company records a provision for doubtful accounts, which is included in "Selling, general and administrative expenses" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Accounts and notes receivables – trade, net are stated net of allowances for doubtful accounts and trade discounts, which were $12.4 million at March 31, 2014 and $14.7 million at December 31, 2013.

Marketable Securities

The Company's marketable securities consist of corporate convertible bonds that are classified as available-for-sale in "Other noncurrent assets, net" on the Consolidated Balance Sheets as the instruments mature in December 2015. The Company determined the appropriate classification at the time of purchase and will re-evaluate such designation as of each balance sheet date. In addition, the Company reviews the securities each quarter for indications of possible impairment. If an impairment is identified, the determination of whether the impairment is temporary or other-than-temporary requires significant judgment. The primary factors that the Company considers in making this judgment include the extent and time the fair value of each investment has been below cost and the existence of a credit loss. If a decline in fair value is judged other-than-temporary, the basis of the securities is written down to fair value and the amount of the write-down is included as a realized loss in the Consolidated Statement of Operations. Changes in fair value are reported in accumulated other comprehensive income ("AOCI").

The convertible element of the bonds has not been bifurcated from the underlying bonds as the element does not contain a net-settlement feature, nor would the Company be able to achieve a hypothetical net-settlement that would substantially place the Company in a comparable cash settlement position. As such, the derivative is not accounted for separately from the bond. The cash paid by the Company was equal to the face value of the bonds issued, and therefore, the Company has not recorded any bond premium or discount on acquiring the bonds. The fair value of the bonds was $67.2 million and $70.0 million at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively. At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, an unrealized holding gain of $10.7 million and $12.7 million, respectively, on available-for-sale securities, net of tax, has been recorded in AOCI.

Revisions in Classification

Certain revisions in classification have been made to prior year's data in order to conform to current year presentation.

New Accounting Pronouncements

In March 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-05, “Foreign Currency Matters (Topic 830): Parent’s Accounting for the Cumulative Translation Adjustment upon Derecognition of Certain Subsidiaries or Groups of Assets within a Foreign Entity or of an Investment in a Foreign Entity.” This newly issued accounting standard requires a cumulative translation adjustment (“CTA”) attached to the parent’s investment in a foreign entity should be released in a manner consistent with the derecognition guidance on investment entities. Thus the entire amount of CTA associated with the foreign entity would be released when there has been a sale of a subsidiary or group of net assets within a foreign entity and the sale represents a complete liquidation of the investment in the foreign entity, a loss of a controlling financial interest in an investment in a foreign entity, or step acquisition for a foreign entity. The Company adopted this accounting standard for the quarter ended March 31, 2014. The adoption of this standard did not materially impact the Company’s financial position or results of operations.

In July 2013, the FASB issued ASU No. 2013-11, “Income Taxes (Topic 740): Presentation of an Unrecognized Tax Benefit when a Net Operating Loss Carryforward, a Similar Tax Loss, or a Tax Credit Carryforward Exists.” The newly issued accounting standard requires the netting of unrecognized tax benefits against a deferred tax asset for a loss or other carryforward that would apply in settlement of the uncertain tax positions. Under the new standard, unrecognized tax benefits will be netted against all available same-jurisdiction losses or other tax carryforwards that would be utilized, rather than only against carryforwards that are created by the unrecognized tax benefit. The Company adopted this accounting standard for the quarter ended March 31, 2014. The adoption of this standard did not materially impact the Company’s financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 2 – STOCK COMPENSATION

The following table represents total stock based compensation expense for non-qualified stock options, restricted stock units (“RSU”) and the tax related benefit for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013:

(in thousands)	Three Months Ended
	2014	2013

Total stock based compensation expense	$ 5,393	$ 5,061
Total related tax benefit	$ 1,564	$ 1,287

At March 31, 2014, the remaining unamortized compensation cost related to non-qualified stock options is $15.6 million, which will be expensed over the weighted average remaining vesting period of the options, or approximately 2.0 years. At March 31, 2014, the unamortized compensation cost related to RSU is $31.1 million, which will be expensed over the weighted average remaining restricted period of the RSU, or approximately 1.8 years.

At March 31, 2014, the weighted average remaining contractual term of all outstanding options is approximately 5.8 years and the weighted average remaining contractual term of exercisable options is approximately 4.9 years.

The following table summarizes the unvested RSU transactions from December 31, 2013 through March 31, 2014:

NOTE 4 – EARNINGS PER COMMON SHARE

The dilutive effect of outstanding non-qualified stock options and RSU is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the treasury stock method. The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted earnings per common share for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013:

Basic Earnings Per Common Share Computation (in thousands, except per share amounts)	Three Months Ended
	2014	2013
Net income attributable to DENTSPLY International	$ 72,878	$ 71,685
Weighted average common shares outstanding	142,053	142,775
Earnings per common share - basic	$ 0.51	$ 0.50
Diluted Earnings Per Common Share Computation (in thousands, except per share amounts)
Net income attributable to DENTSPLY International	$ 72,878	$ 71,685
Weighted average common shares outstanding	142,053	142,775
Incremental weighted average shares from assumed exercise of dilutive options from stock-based compensation awards	2,400	2,324
Total weighted average diluted shares outstanding	144,453	145,099
Earnings per common share - diluted	$ 0.50	$ 0.49

Options to purchase 1.5 million and 3.5 million shares of common stock that were outstanding during the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively, were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per common share since the options' exercise price were greater than the average market price of the common shares and, therefore, the effect would be antidilutive.

NOTE 5 – BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company recorded a liability for the purchase of the remaining shares of one variable interest entity. The amount is preliminary and is based on the Company's best estimate of this obligation, which is subject to contractual adjustments. As a result, the Company recorded a reduction to additional paid in capital for the excess of the purchase price above the carrying value of the noncontrolling interest. The Company expects to finalize the transaction in 2014.

NOTE 6 – SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company has numerous operating businesses covering a wide range of dental and certain healthcare products and geographic regions, primarily serving the professional dental market. Professional dental products represented approximately 88% and 89% of sales for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, respectively.

The operating businesses are combined into operating groups, which generally have overlapping product offerings, geographical presence, customer bases, distribution channels, and regulatory oversight. These operating groups are considered the Company's reportable segments as the Company's chief operating decision-maker regularly reviews financial results at the operating group level and uses this information to manage the Company's operations. The accounting policies of the segments are consistent with those described in the Company's most recently filed Form 10-K in the summary of significant accounting policies. The Company's segments are measured on net third party sales, excluding precious metal content and segment income for reporting purposes. Net sales excluding precious metal content are the Company's net sales excluding the precious metal cost within the products sold, and are considered a non-US GAAP measure. The Company's exclusion of precious metal content in the measurement of net third party sales enhances comparability of performance between periods as it excludes the fluctuating market prices of the precious metal content. The Company defines segment income for reporting purposes as net operating income before restructuring and other costs, interest expense, interest income, other expense (income), net and provision for income taxes. Generally, the Company evaluates performance of the segments based on the groups' segment income and net third party sales, excluding precious metal content. A description of the products and services provided within each of the Company's three reportable segments is provided below.

Significant interdependencies exist among the Company's operations in certain geographic areas. Inter-segment sales are at prices intended to provide a reasonable profit to the manufacturing unit after recovery of all manufacturing costs and to provide a reasonable profit for purchasing locations after coverage of marketing and general and administrative costs.

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company realigned reporting responsibilities for multiple locations as a result of changes to the management structure. The segment information below reflects the revised structure for all periods shown.

Dental Consumable Businesses

This segment includes responsibility for the design, manufacturing, sales and distribution of certain small equipment and chairside consumable products in the United States, Germany and certain other European regions. It also has responsibility for the sales and distribution of certain endodontic products in Germany and certain other European regions as well as chairside consumable, endodontic and dental laboratory products in Australia.

Dental Specialty and Laboratory Businesses

This segment includes responsibility for the design, manufacture, sales and distribution of most of the Company's dental specialty products, including endodontic, orthodontic and implant products, in most regions of the world. In addition, this segment is responsible for the design, manufacture, sales and distribution of most of the Company's dental laboratory products. This segment is also responsible for the sales and distribution of most of the Company's other dental products within certain European regions as well as Japan, Canada and Mexico, and the design, manufacture, worldwide distribution and sales of certain non-dental products, excluding urological and surgery-related products.

Healthcare and Emerging Markets Businesses

This segment is responsible for the worldwide design, manufacturing, sales and distribution of the Company's healthcare products, primarily urological and surgery-related products, throughout most of the world. This segment also includes the responsibility for the sales and distribution of most of the Company's dental products sold in Eastern Europe, Middle East, South America, Latin America, Asia (excluding Japan) and Africa.

NOTE 7 – INVENTORIES

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. At March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, the cost of $7.4 million and $6.5 million, respectively, was determined by the last-in, first-out (“LIFO”) method. The cost of other inventories was determined by the first-in, first-out (“FIFO”) or average cost methods. If the FIFO method had been used to determine the cost of LIFO inventories, the amounts at which net inventories are stated would be higher than reported at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013 by $6.2 million and $5.9 million, respectively.

The Company establishes reserves for inventory estimated to be obsolete or unmarketable. Assumptions about future demand and market conditions are considered when estimating these reserves. The inventory valuation reserves were $37.6 million and $34.2 million at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, respectively.

Inventories, net of inventory valuation reserves, consist of the following:

(in thousands)	March 31, 2014	December 31, 2013

During the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013, the Company recorded net restructuring costs of $0.8 million and $0.7 million, respectively. These costs are recorded in "Restructuring and other costs" in the Consolidated Statements of Operations and the associated liabilities are recorded in "Accrued liabilities" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 10 – FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND DERIVATIVES

Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of market risks, which primarily include the risks related to the effects of changes in foreign currency exchange rates, interest rates and commodity prices. These financial exposures are monitored and managed by the Company as part of its overall risk management program. The objective of this risk management program is to reduce the volatility that these market risks may have on the Company's operating results and equity. The Company employs derivative financial instruments to hedge certain anticipated transactions, firm commitments, or assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies. Additionally, the Company utilizes interest rate swaps to convert variable rate debt to fixed rate debt and to convert fixed rate debt to variable rate debt, cross currency basis swaps to convert debt denominated in one currency to another currency and commodity swaps to fix certain variable raw material costs.

Derivative Instruments Designated as Hedging

Cash Flow Hedges

The following table summarizes the notional amounts of cash flow hedges by derivative instrument type at March 31, 2014 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months, with a discussion of the various cash flow hedges by derivative instrument type following the table:

(in thousands)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Foreign exchange forward contracts	$ 388,046	$ 292,884
Interest rate swaps	195,150	121,621
Commodity contracts	2,234	2,234
Total derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges	$ 585,430	$ 416,739

Foreign Exchange Risk Management

The Company uses a layered hedging program to hedge select anticipated foreign currency cash flows to reduce volatility in both cash flows and reported earnings of the consolidated Company. The Company accounts for the designated foreign exchange forward contracts as cash flow hedges. As a result, the Company records the fair value of the contracts primarily through AOCI based on the tested effectiveness of the foreign exchange forward contracts. The Company measures the effectiveness of cash flow hedges of anticipated transactions on a spot-to-spot basis rather than on a forward-to-forward basis. Accordingly, the spot-to-spot change in the derivative fair value will be deferred in AOCI and released and recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the same period that the hedged transaction is recorded. The time value component of the fair value of the derivative is deemed ineffective and is reported currently in "Other expense (income), net" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the period which it is applicable. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in cash from operating activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. The Company hedges various currencies, with the most significant activity occurring in euros, Swedish kronor, Canadian dollars, and Swiss francs.

These foreign exchange forward contracts generally have maturities up to 18 months and the counterparties to the transactions are typically large international financial institutions.

Interest Rate Risk Management

The Company uses interest rate swaps to convert a portion of its variable interest rate debt to fixed interest rate debt. At March 31, 2014, the Company has two groups of significant interest rate swaps. One of the groups of swaps has notional amounts totaling 12.6 billion Japanese yen, and effectively converts the underlying variable interest rate to a fixed interest rate of 0.2% for an initial term of three years, ending in September 2014. Another swap has a notional amount of 65.0 million Swiss francs, and effectively converts the underlying variable interest rate to a fixed interest rate of 0.7% for an initial term of five years, ending in September 2016.

The Company enters into interest rate swap contracts infrequently as they are only used to manage interest rate risk on long-term debt instruments and not for speculative purposes. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in cash from operating activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

Commodity Risk Management

The Company enters into precious metal commodity swap contracts to effectively fix certain variable raw material costs typically for up to 18 months. These swaps are used to stabilize the cost of components used in the production of certain of the Company's products. The Company generally accounts for the commodity swaps as cash flow hedges. As a result, the Company records the fair value of the contracts primarily through AOCI based on the tested effectiveness of the commodity swaps. The Company measures the effectiveness of cash flow hedges of anticipated transactions on a spot-to-spot basis rather than on a forward-to-forward basis. Accordingly, the spot-to-spot change in the derivative fair value will be deferred in AOCI and released and recorded on the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the same period that the hedged transaction is recorded. The time value component of the fair value of the derivative is deemed ineffective and is reported currently in "Interest expense" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations in the period which it is applicable. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in cash from operating activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The following tables summarize the amount of gains (losses) recorded in AOCI in the Consolidated Balance Sheets and income (expense) in the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to all cash flow hedges for the quarters ended March 31, 2014 and 2013:

Overall, the derivatives designated as cash flow hedges are considered to be highly effective. At March 31, 2014, the Company expects to reclassify $6.0 million of deferred net losses on cash flow hedges recorded in AOCI to the Consolidated Statement of Operations during the next 12 months. This reclassification is primarily due to the sale of inventory that includes hedged purchases and recognized interest expense on interest rate swaps. The maximum term over which the Company is hedging exposures to variability of cash flows (for all forecasted transactions, excluding interest payments on variable interest rate debt) is 18 months.

For the roll forward of derivative instruments designated as cash flow hedges in AOCI see Note 3, Comprehensive Income.

Hedges of Net Investments in Foreign Operations

The Company has significant investments in foreign subsidiaries the most significant of which are denominated in euros, Swiss francs, Japanese yen and Swedish kronor. The net assets of these subsidiaries are exposed to volatility in currency exchange rates. To hedge a portion of this exposure the Company employs both derivative and non-derivative financial instruments. The derivative instruments consist of foreign exchange forward contracts and cross currency basis swaps. The non-derivative instruments consist of foreign currency denominated debt held at the parent company level. Translation gains and losses related to the net assets of the foreign subsidiaries are offset by gains and losses in derivative and non-derivative financial instruments designated as hedges of net investments, which are included in AOCI. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in investing activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows except for derivative instruments that include an other-than-insignificant financing element, in which case all cash flows will be classified as financing activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The following table summarizes the notional amounts of hedges of net investments by derivative instrument type at March 31, 2014 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months:

(in thousands)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Foreign exchange forward contracts	$ 180,466	$ 115,718
Cross currency basis swaps	489,253	90,950
Total derivative instruments designated as net investment hedges	$ 669,719	$ 206,668

On February 14, 2014, the Company dedesignated 449.8 million euros of foreign exchange forward contracts that were previously designated as net investment hedges. The change in the value of the dedesignated hedges will be recorded in "Other expense (income), net" on the Consolidated Statement of Operations and will offset the change in the value of non-designated euro denominated cross currency basis swaps as further noted in the section below titled Derivative Instruments Not Designated as Hedges.

On March 25, 2014, the Company entered into additional foreign exchange forward contracts designated as hedges of net investment with a notional amount of 25.0 million euros.

The fair value of the cross currency basis swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts is the estimated amount the Company would receive or pay at the reporting date, taking into account the effective interest rates, cross currency swap basis rates and foreign exchange rates. The effective portion of the change in the value of these derivatives is recorded in AOCI, net of tax effects.

The following tables summarize the amount of gains (losses) recorded in AOCI on the Consolidated Balance Sheets and income (expense) on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to the hedges of net investments for the quarters ended March 31, 2014 and 2013:

Fair Value Hedges

The Company uses interest rate swaps to convert a portion of its fixed interest rate debt to variable interest rate debt. The Company has a group of U.S. dollar denominated interest rate swaps with an initial total notional value of $150.0 million to effectively convert the underlying fixed interest rate of 4.1% on the Company's $250.0 million Private Placement Notes ("PPN") to variable rate for an initial term of five years, ending February 2016. The notional value of the swaps will decline proportionately as portions of the PPN mature. These interest rate swaps are designated as fair value hedges of the interest rate risk associated with the hedged portion of the fixed rate PPN. Accordingly, the Company will carry the portion of the hedged debt at fair value, with the change in debt and swaps offsetting each other on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. Any cash flows associated with these instruments are included in operating activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The following table summarizes the notional amounts of fair value hedges by derivative instrument type at March 31, 2014 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months:

(in thousands)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Interest rate swaps	$ 105,000	$ 60,000

The following tables summarize the amount of income (expense) recorded on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to the hedges of fair value for the quarters ended March 31, 2014 and 2013:

Derivative Instruments Not Designated as Hedges

The Company enters into derivative instruments to hedge the foreign exchange revaluation risk associated with recorded assets and liabilities that are denominated in a non-functional currency. The gains and losses on these derivative transactions offset the gains and losses generated by the revaluation of the underlying non-functional currency balances and are recorded in "Other expense (income), net" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations. The Company primarily uses foreign exchange forward contracts and cross currency basis swaps to hedge these risks. Any cash flows associated with the foreign exchange forward contracts and interest rate swaps not designated as hedges are included in cash from operating activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows. Any cash flows associated with the cross currency basis swaps not designated as hedges are included in investing activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows except for derivative instruments that include an other-than-insignificant financing element, in which case the cash flows will be classified as financing activities on the Consolidated Statements of Cash Flows.

The following tables summarize the aggregate notional amounts of the Company's economic hedges not designated as hedges by derivative instrument types at March 31, 2014 and the notional amounts expected to mature during the next 12 months:

(in thousands)	Aggregate Notional Amount	Aggregate Notional Amount Maturing within 12 Months
Foreign exchange forward contracts	$ 1,085,950	$ 1,085,950
Interest rate swaps	3,980	995

The Company maintains Swiss franc denominated cross currency basis swaps to offset an intercompany Swiss franc note receivable at a U.S. dollar functional entity. The hedge declines each quarter to coincide with expected repayments of the note. At March 31, 2014, the remaining notional value of the cross currency swaps was 116.4 million Swiss francs.

On February 14, 2014, a series of U.S. dollar denominated intercompany note receivables were transferred from a euro functional entity to a U.S. dollar functional entity at which point the underlying foreign currency revaluation risk that was hedged by non-designated cross currency swaps totaling 449.8 million euro was eliminated. As a result, the company dedesignated an offsetting amount of 449.8 million euro of net investment hedges. The change in the value of the dedesignated net investment hedges will be recorded in "Other expense (income), net" on the Consolidated Statement of Operations and will offset the change in the value of the non-designated euro denominated cross currency swaps until both sets of hedges mature in December 2014.

The following table summarizes the amounts of gains (losses) recorded on the Company's Consolidated Statements of Operations related to the economic hedges not designated as hedging for the quarters ended March 31, 2014 and 2013:

(in thousands)	Consolidated Statements of Operations Location	Gain (Loss) Recognized

(a) The gains and losses on these derivative transactions offset the gains and losses generated by the revaluation of the underlying non-functional currency balances which are recorded in "Other expense (income), net" on the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

Balance Sheet Offsetting

Substantially all of the Company's derivative contracts are subject to netting arrangements, whereby the right to offset occurs in the event of default or termination in accordance with the terms of the arrangements with the counterparty. While these contracts contain the enforceable right to offset through netting arrangements with the same counterparty, the Company elects to present them on a gross basis on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

NOTE 11 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

The Company records financial instruments at fair value with unrealized gains and losses related to certain financial instruments reflected in AOCI on the Consolidated Balance Sheets. In addition, the Company recognizes certain liabilities at fair value. The Company applies the market approach for recurring fair value measurements. Accordingly, the Company utilizes valuation techniques that maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The fair value of financial instruments is determined by reference to various market data and other valuation techniques as appropriate. The Company believes the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable (net of allowance for doubtful accounts), prepaid expenses and other current assets, accounts payable, accrued liabilities, income taxes payable and notes payable approximate fair value due to the short-term nature of these instruments. The Company estimated the fair value and carrying value of total long-term debt, including the current portion, was $1,335.2 million and $1,298.4 million, respectively, at March 31, 2014. At December 31, 2013, the Company estimated the fair value and carrying value, including the current portion, was $1,387.7 million and $1,370.8 million respectively. The interest rate on the $450.0 million Senior Notes, the $300.0 million Senior Notes, and the $250.0 million PPN are fixed rates of 4.2%, 2.8% and 4.1%, respectively, and their fair value is based on the interest rates as of March 31, 2014. The interest rates on variable rate term loan debt and commercial paper are consistent with current market conditions, therefore the fair value of these instruments approximates their carrying values.

The following tables set forth by level within the fair value hierarchy the Company's financial assets and liabilities that were accounted for at fair value on a recurring basis at March 31, 2014 and December 31, 2013, which are classified as "Cash and cash equivalents," "Prepaid expenses and other current assets," "Other noncurrent assets, net," "Accrued liabilities," and "Other noncurrent liabilities" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. Financial assets and liabilities that are recorded at fair value as of the balance sheet date are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Derivative valuations are based on observable inputs to the valuation model including interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, future commodities prices and credit risks. As discussed in Note 10, Financial Instruments and Derivatives, commodity contracts, certain interest rate swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts are considered cash flow hedges. In addition, certain cross currency basis swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts are considered hedges of net investments in foreign operations.

The Company uses the income method valuation technique to estimate the fair value of the DIO Corporation convertible bonds. The significant unobservable inputs for valuing the corporate bonds are DIO Corporation's stock volatility factor of approximately 40% and corporate bond rating which implies approximately a 13% discount rate on the valuation model. Significant observable inputs used to value the corporate bonds include foreign exchange rates and DIO Corporation's period-ending market stock price.

The Company has valued the DIO equity option contracts using a Monte Carlo simulation which uses several estimates and probability assumptions by management including the future stock price, the stock price as a multiple of DIO earnings and the probability of the sellers to reduce their shares held by selling into the open market. The fair value of equity option contracts are reported in “Other noncurrent liabilities,” on the Consolidated Balance Sheets and changes in the fair value are reported in “Other expense (income), net” in the Consolidated Statements of Operations.

The following table presents a reconciliation of the Company’s Level 3 holdings measured at fair value on a recurring basis using unobservable inputs:

NOTE 12 – INCOME TAXES

Uncertainties in Income Taxes

The Company recognizes in the interim consolidated financial statements, the impact of a tax position, if that position is more likely than not of being sustained on audit, based on the technical merits of the position.

It is reasonably possible that certain amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase or decrease within 12 months of the reporting date of the Company’s interim consolidated financial statements. Expiration of statutes of limitation in various jurisdictions during the next 12 months could include unrecognized tax benefits of approximately $1.1 million.

Other Tax Matters

For the quarter ended March 31, 2013, the Company recorded a tax benefit of $9.4 million related to U.S. federal legislative changes enacted in January 2013, relating to 2012, and a benefit of $3.3 million related to prior year tax matters. For the quarter ended March 31, 2014, the effective tax rate was unfavorably impacted by the Company’s change in the mix of consolidated earnings.

NOTE 13 – FINANCING ARRANGEMENTS

During the three months ended March 31, 2014, the Company refinanced the first required payment of $75.0 million PPN due February 2016 by issuing commercial paper. The second required payment of $100.0 million due in February 2015 has been classified as current on the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

The Company’s revolving credit facility, term loans and PPN contain certain affirmative and negative covenants relating to the Company's operations and financial condition. At March 31, 2014, the Company was in compliance with all debt covenants.

At March 31, 2014, the Company had total unused lines of credit, including lines available under its short-term arrangements and revolving credit agreement, of $406.3 million.

NOTE 15 – COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

Litigation

On June 18, 2004, Marvin Weinstat, DDS and Richard Nathan, DDS filed a class action suit in San Francisco County, California alleging that the Company misrepresented that its Cavitron® ultrasonic scalers are suitable for use in oral surgical procedures. The Complaint seeks a recall of the product and refund of its purchase price to dentists who have purchased it for use in oral surgery. The Court certified the case as a class action in June 2006 with respect to the breach of warranty and unfair business practices claims. The class that was certified is defined as California dental professionals who, at any time during the period beginning June 18, 2000 through September 14, 2012, purchased and used one or more Cavitron® ultrasonic scalers for the performance of oral surgical procedures on their patients, which Cavitrons® were accompanied by Directions for Use that "Indicated" Cavitron® use for "periodontal debridement for all types of periodontal disease." The case went to trial in September 2013, and on January 22, 2014, the San Francisco Superior Court issued its decision in the Company's favor, rejecting all of the plaintiffs' claims. The plaintiffs have appealed the Superior Court's decision, and the appeal is now pending. The Company intends to defend against this appeal.

On December 12, 2006, a Complaint was filed by Carole Hildebrand, DDS and Robert Jaffin, DDS in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania (the Plaintiffs subsequently added Dr. Mitchell Goldman as a named class representative). The case was filed by the same law firm that filed the Weinstat case in California. The Complaint asserts putative class action claims on behalf of dentists located in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The Complaint seeks damages and asserts that the Company's Cavitron® ultrasonic scaler was negligently designed and sold in breach of contract and warranty arising from misrepresentations about the potential uses of the product because it cannot assure the delivery of potable or sterile water. Following dismissal of the case for lack of jurisdiction, the plaintiffs filed a second complaint under the name of Dr. Hildebrand's corporate practice, Center City Periodontists, asserting the same allegations (this case is now proceeding under the name "Center City Periodontists"). The plaintiffs moved to have the case certified as a class action, to which the Company has objected and filed its brief. The Court subsequently granted a Motion filed by the Company and dismissed plaintiffs' New Jersey Consumer Fraud and negligent design claims, leaving only a breach of express warranty claim, in response to which the Company has filed a Motion for Summary Judgment.

On January 20, 2014, the Company was served with a qui tam complaint filed by two former and one current employee of the Company under the Federal False Claims Act and equivalent state and city laws. The lawsuit was previously under seal in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The complaint alleges, among other things, that the Company engaged in various illegal marketing activities, and thereby caused dental and other healthcare professionals to file false claims for reimbursement with Federal and State governments. The relators seek injunctive relief, fines, treble damages, and attorneys' fees and costs. On January 27, 2014, the United States filed with the Court a notice that it had elected not to intervene in the qui tam action at this time. The United States' notice indicated that the named state and city co-plaintiffs had authorized the United States to communicate to the Court that they also had decided not to intervene at this time. These non-intervention decisions do not prevent the qui tam relators from litigating this action, and the United States and/or the named states and/or cities may seek to intervene in the action at a later time. The Company has filed a motion to dismiss the complaint and intends to vigorously defend itself in the litigation.

The Company does not believe a loss is probable related to the above litigation. Further a reasonable estimate of a possible range of loss cannot be made. In the event that one or more of these matters is unfavorably resolved, it is possible the Company's results from operations could be materially impacted.

In 2012, the Company received subpoenas from the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Indiana (the "USAO") and from the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Department of the Treasury ("OFAC") requesting documents and information related to compliance with export controls and economic sanctions regulations by certain of its subsidiaries. The Company has voluntarily contacted OFAC and the Bureau of Industry and Security of the United States Department of Commerce ("BIS"), in connection with these matters as well as regarding compliance with export controls and economic sanctions regulations by certain other business units of the Company identified in connection with an ongoing internal review by the Company. The Company is cooperating with the USAO, OFAC and BIS with respect to these matters.

At this stage of the inquiries, the Company is unable to predict the ultimate outcome of these matters or what impact, if any, the outcome of these matters might have on the Company's consolidated financial position, results of operations or cash flows. Violations of export control or economic sanctions laws or regulations could result in a range of governmental enforcement actions, including fines or penalties, injunctions and/or criminal or other civil proceedings, which actions could have a material adverse effect on the Company's reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations. At this time, no claims have been made against the Company.

In addition to the matters disclosed above, the Company is, from time to time, subject to a variety of litigation and similar proceedings incidental to its business. These legal matters primarily involve claims for damages arising out of the use of the Company's products and services and claims relating to intellectual property matters including patent infringement, employment matters, tax matters, commercial disputes, competition and sales and trading practices, personal injury and insurance coverage. The Company may also become subject to lawsuits as a result of past or future acquisitions or as a result of liabilities retained from, or representations, warranties or indemnities provided in connection with, divested businesses. Some of these lawsuits may include claims for punitive and consequential, as well as compensatory damages. Based upon the Company's experience, current information and applicable law, it does not believe that these proceedings and claims will have a material adverse effect on its consolidated results of operations, financial position or liquidity. However, in the event of unexpected further developments, it is possible that the ultimate resolution of these matters, or other similar matters, if unfavorable, may be materially adverse to the Company's business, financial condition, results of operations or liquidity.

While the Company maintains general, products, property, workers' compensation, automobile, cargo, aviation, crime, fiduciary and directors' and officers' liability insurance up to certain limits that cover certain of these claims, this insurance may be insufficient or unavailable to cover such losses. In addition, while the Company believes it is entitled to indemnification from third parties for some of these claims, these rights may also be insufficient or unavailable to cover such losses.

Purchase Commitments

From time to time, the Company enters into long-term inventory purchase commitments with minimum purchase requirements for raw materials and finished goods to ensure the availability of products for production and distribution. These commitments may have a significant impact on levels of inventory maintained by the Company.

Dental specialty products are specialized treatment products used within the dental office and laboratory settings. DENTSPLY's products in this category include endodontic (root canal) instruments and materials, implants and related products, bone grafting materials, 3D digital scanning and treatment planning software, orthodontic appliances and accessories.

Consumable medical device products consist mainly of urology catheters, certain surgical products, medical drills and other non-medical products.

Principal Measurements

The principal measurements used by the Company in evaluating its business are: (1) internal sales growth by geographic region; (2) constant currency sales growth by geographic region; (3) operating margins of each reportable segment including product pricing and cost controls; (4) the development, introduction and contribution of innovative new products; and (5) sales growth through acquisition.

The Company defines "internal sales growth" as the increase or decrease in net sales from period to period, excluding (1) precious metal content; (2) the impact of changes in currency exchange rates; and (3) net acquisition sales growth. The Company defines "net acquisition sales growth" as the net sales, excluding precious metal content, for a period of twelve months following the transaction date of businesses that have been acquired, less the net sales, excluding precious metal content, for a period of twelve months prior to the transaction date of businesses that have been divested. The Company defines "constant currency sales growth" as internal sales growth plus net acquisition sales growth.

The primary drivers of internal growth includes global dental market growth, innovation and new products launched by the Company, and continued investments in sales and marketing resources, including clinical education. Management believes that over time, the Company's ability to execute its strategies allows it to grow at a modest premium to the growth rate of the underlying dental market. Management further believes that the global dental market has generally in the past and should over time in the future grow at a premium to underlying economic growth rates. Considering all of these factors, the Company assumes that the long-term growth rate for the dental market will range from 3% to 6% on average and that the Company targets a slight premium to market growth. Over the past several years, growth in the global dental and other healthcare markets have been restrained by lower economic growth in Western Europe and certain other markets compared to historical averages and, accordingly, market growth rates, and the Company's internal growth rate remains uncertain in the near term.

The Company's business is subject to quarterly fluctuations of consolidated net sales and net income. The Company typically implements most of its price changes at the beginning of the first or fourth quarters. Price changes, other marketing and promotional programs as well as the management of inventory levels by distributors and the implementation of strategic initiatives, may impact sales levels in a given period.

The Company has a focus on minimizing costs and achieving operational efficiencies. Management continues to evaluate the consolidation of operations or functions to reduce costs. In addition, the Company remains focused on enhancing efficiency through expanded use of technology and process improvement initiatives. The Company believes that the benefits from these initiatives will improve the cost structure and help offset areas of rising costs such as energy, employee benefits and regulatory oversight and compliance. In connection with these efforts, the Company targets adjusted operating income margins to expand to 20% as the benefits of these initiatives are realized over time. In addition, the Company expects that it will record restructuring charges, from time to time associated with such initiatives. These restructuring charges could be material to the Company's consolidated financial statements and there can be no assurance that the target adjusted operating income margins will be achieved.

Product innovation is a key component of the Company's overall growth strategy. New advances in technology are anticipated to have a significant influence on future products in dentistry and consumable medical device markets in which the Company operates. As a result, the Company continues to pursue research and development initiatives to support technological development, including collaborations with various research institutions and dental schools. In addition, the Company licenses and purchases technologies developed by third parties. Although the Company believes these activities will lead to new innovative dental and consumable medical device products, they involve new technologies and there can be no assurance that commercialized products will be developed.

The Company will continue to pursue opportunities to expand the Company's product offerings through acquisitions. Although the professional dental and the consumable medical device markets in which the Company operates have experienced consolidation, they remain fragmented. Management believes that there will continue to be adequate opportunities to participate as a consolidator in the industry for the foreseeable future.

Reclassification of Prior Year Amounts

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior year's data in order to conform to current year presentation. Specifically, during the first quarter of 2014, the Company realigned reporting responsibilities for multiple locations as a result of changes to the management reporting structure. The segment information reflects the revised structure for all periods shown.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS, QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2014 COMPARED TO QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2013

Net Sales

Management believes that the presentation of net sales, excluding precious metal content, provides useful information to investors because a significant portion of DENTSPLY's net sales is comprised of sales of precious metals generated through sales of the Company's precious metal dental alloy products, which are used by third parties to construct crown and bridge materials. Due to the fluctuations of precious metal prices and because the precious metal content of the Company's sales is largely a pass-through to customers and has minimal effect on earnings, DENTSPLY reports net sales both with and without precious metal content to show the Company's performance independent of precious metal price volatility and to enhance comparability of performance between periods. The Company uses its cost of precious metal purchased as a proxy for the precious metal content of sales, as the precious metal content of sales is not separately tracked and invoiced to customers. The Company believes that it is reasonable to use the cost of precious metal content purchased in this manner since precious metal dental alloy sale prices are typically adjusted when the prices of underlying precious metals change.

The presentation of net sales, excluding precious metal content, is considered a measure not calculated in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles in the United States ("US GAAP"), and is therefore considered a non-US GAAP measure. The Company provides the following reconciliation of net sales to net sales, excluding precious metal content. The Company's definitions and calculations of net sales, excluding precious metal content, and other operating measures derived using net sales, excluding precious metal content, may not necessarily be the same as those used by other companies.

(in millions)	Three Months Ended
	March 31,		$ Change	% Change
	2014	2013
Net sales	$ 730.1	$ 732.1	$ (2.0)	(0.3%)

Net sales, excluding precious metal content	$ 689.2	$ 672.7	$ 16.5	2.5 %

Net sales, excluding precious metal content, for the three months ended March 31, 2014 was $689.2 million, an increase of $16.5 million or 2.5% over the first quarter of 2013. The change in net sales, excluding precious metal content, was primarily a result of internal and acquisition growth. Precious metal content of sales declined mostly as a result of lower refinery volume compared to the same period a year ago.

Constant Currency and Internal Sales Growth

The following table includes growth rates for net sales, excluding precious metal content, for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared with the three months ended March 31, 2013.

	Three Months Ended March 31, 2014
	United States	Europe	Rest of World	Worldwide
Internal sales growth	0.1%	(1.3%)	8.9%	1.1%
Acquisition sales growth	0.3%	— %	3.2%	0.8%
Constant currency sales growth	0.4%	(1.3%)	12.1%	1.9%

United States

Net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased by 0.4% on a constant currency sales growth basis in the first quarter of 2014 as compared to the first quarter of 2013, primarily due to acquisition sales growth. Internal sales growth of 0.1% was the result of increased sales of dental consumable and dental specialty product categories partially offset by the dental laboratory product category.

Europe

Net sales, excluding precious metal content, decreased by 1.3% on a constant currency sales growth basis in the first quarter of 2014 as compared to the first quarter of 2013, primarily reflecting the impact of the geopolitical conflict in the CIS countries. Excluding sales in the CIS, internal sales growth would have been a positive 1.4% for the quarter led by dental consumable and consumable medical device product categories. At this time, it is uncertain what the impact the ongoing conflict in the CIS will have on the Company's business in this region.

Rest of World

Net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased by 12.1% on a constant currency sales growth basis in the first quarter of 2014 as compared to the first quarter of 2013. In addition to acquisition growth of 3.2%, internal growth of 8.9% was primarily the result of increased sales of dental specialty and dental consumable product categories.

Gross Profit

(in millions)	Three Months Ended
	March 31,		$ Change	% Change
2014	2013
Gross profit	$ 394.2	$ 388.2	$ 6.0	1.5%
Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, including precious metal content	54.0%	53.0%
Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content	57.2%	57.7%

Gross profit as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content, decreased by 50 basis points for the quarter ended March 31, 2014 compared to the same quarter of 2013. The decrease in the gross profit rate was primarily the result of the unfavorable impact of foreign currency movements compared to the same three month period in 2013.

Operating Expenses

(in millions)	Three Months Ended
	March 31,		$ Change	% Change
2014	2013
Selling, general and administrative expenses ("SG&A")	$ 287.8	$ 293.7	$ (5.9)	(2.0%)

SG&A as a percentage of net sales, including precious metal content	39.4%	40.1%
SG&A as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content	41.8%	43.7%

SG&A Expenses

SG&A expenses as a percentage of net sales, excluding precious metal content, decreased 1.9 percentage points in the quarter ended March 31, 2014 when compared to the quarter end March 31, 2013. The rate reduction is primarily due to cost reduction initiatives and expense controls across a number of businesses, as well as higher expenses recorded in the first quarter of 2013 relating to global marketing events.

Other Income and Expense

(in millions)	Three Months Ended March
	2014	2013	Change
Net interest expense	$ 9.5	$ 13.0	$ (3.5)
Other expense (income), net	0.4	2.9	(2.5)
Net interest and other expense	$ 9.9	$ 15.9	$ (6.0)

Net Interest Expense

Net interest expense for the first quarter of 2014 was $3.5 million lower compared to the three months ended March 31, 2013. The net decrease is a result of lower positive fair value adjustments on designated net investment hedges in 2014 compared to the prior year period and lower average debt levels in 2014 compared to the same period in 2013.

Other Expense (Income), Net

Other expense (income), net for the three months ended March 31, 2014 and 2013 was $0.4 million and $2.9 million, respectively. The net decrease is a result of lower positive fair value adjustments on non-designated hedges of intercompany loans in 2014 compared to the prior year period. Other expense (income), net in the quarter ended March 31, 2014 included $0.3 million of currency transaction losses and $0.1 million of non-operating expenses. Other expense (income), net in the quarter ended March 31, 2013 included $3.1 million of currency transaction losses and $0.2 million of non-operating income.

Provision for Income Taxes

The Company's effective tax rate for the first quarter of 2014 and 2013 was 23.5% and 4.5%, respectively. In the 2013 period, the Company recorded a tax benefit of $9.4 million related to U.S. federal legislative changes enacted in January 2013, relating to 2012, and a benefit of $3.3 million related to prior year tax matters. In the three months ended March 31, 2014, the effective tax rate was unfavorably impacted by the Company's change in the mix of consolidated earnings.

The Company's effective income tax rate for 2014 includes the net favorable impact of amortization on purchased intangibles assets, acquisition related activities, various income tax adjustments, restructuring and other costs and income related to credit risk adjustments on outstanding derivatives and which impacted income before income taxes and the provision for income taxes by $15.6 million and $2.7 million, respectively.

In 2013, the Company's effective income tax rate included the net favorable impact of amortization on purchased intangibles assets, income related to credit risk adjustments on outstanding derivatives, integration and restructuring and other costs and various income tax adjustments which impacted income before income taxes and the provision for income taxes by $19.3 million and $17.7 million, respectively.

Equity in net loss of unconsolidated affiliated company

The Company's 17% ownership investment of DIO Corporation ("DIO") resulted in a net loss of $0.3 million and $1.8 million on an after-tax basis for the first quarter of 2014 and 2013, respectively. The equity earnings of DIO includes the result of mark-to-market changes related to the derivative accounting for the convertible bonds issued by DIO to DENTSPLY. The Company's portion of the mark-to-market net income recorded by DIO for the first quarter of 2014 was approximately $0.4 million and a mark-to-market net loss recorded by DIO of approximately $1.9 million for the same period in 2013.

Net income attributable to noncontrolling interests

The portion of consolidated net income attributable to noncontrolling interests decreased $0.9 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 as compared to the same period in 2013 as a result of the purchase of the remaining shares of a variable interest entity. The Company anticipates the transaction to be completed later in 2014.

Net Income attributable to DENTSPLY International

In addition to the results reported in accordance with US GAAP, the Company provides adjusted net income attributable to DENTSPLY International and adjusted earnings per diluted common share. The Company discloses adjusted net income attributable to DENTSPLY International to allow investors to evaluate the performance of the Company's operations exclusive of certain items that impact the comparability of results from period to period and certain large non-cash charges related to purchased intangible assets. The Company believes that this information is helpful in understanding underlying operating trends and cash flow generation. The adjusted net income attributable to DENTSPLY International consists of net income attributable to DENTSPLY International adjusted to exclude the impact of the following:

(1) Acquisition related costs. These adjustments include costs related to integrating recently acquired businesses and specific costs related to the consummation of the acquisition process. These costs are irregular in timing and as such may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and are therefore excluded to allow investors to better understand underlying operating trends.

(2) Restructuring and other costs. These adjustments include both costs and income that are irregular in timing, amount and impact to the Company's financial performance. As such, these items may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and are therefore excluded for the purpose of understanding underlying operating trends.

(3) Amortization of purchased intangible assets. This adjustment excludes the periodic amortization expense related to purchased intangible assets. Beginning in 2011, the Company began recording large non-cash charges related to the values attributed to purchased intangible assets. These charges have been excluded from adjusted net income attributed to DENTSPLY International to allow investors to evaluate and understand operating trends excluding these large non-cash charges.

(4) Income related to credit risk and fair value adjustments. These adjustments include both the cost and income impacts of adjustments in certain assets and liabilities that are recorded through net income which are due solely to the changes in fair value and credit risk. These items can be variable and driven more by market conditions than the Company's operating performance. As such, these items may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and therefore are excluded for comparability purposes.

(5) Certain fair value adjustments related to an unconsolidated affiliated company. This adjustment represents the fair value adjustment of the unconsolidated affiliated company's convertible debt instrument held by the Company. The affiliate is accounted for under the equity method of accounting. The fair value adjustment is driven by open market pricing of the affiliate's equity instruments, which has a high degree of variability and may not be indicative of the operating performance of the affiliate or the Company.

(6) Income tax related adjustments. These adjustments include both income tax expenses and income tax benefits that are representative of income tax adjustments mostly related to prior periods, as well as the final settlement of income tax audits. These adjustments are irregular in timing and amount and may significantly impact the Company's operating performance. As such, these items may not be indicative of past and future performance of the Company and therefore are excluded for comparability purposes.

Adjusted earnings per diluted common share is calculated by dividing adjusted net income attributable to DENTSPLY International by diluted weighted-average common shares outstanding. Adjusted net income attributable to DENTSPLY International and adjusted earnings per diluted common share are considered measures not calculated in accordance with US

GAAP, and therefore are non-US GAAP measures. These non-US GAAP measures may differ from other companies. Income tax related adjustments may include the impact to adjust the interim effective income tax rate to the expected annual effective tax rate. The non-US GAAP financial information should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with US GAAP.

On a constant currency basis, net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased 5.5% as compared to the same period in 2013 led by growth in the Europe and Rest of World.

Dental Specialty and Laboratory Businesses

Net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased $2.8 million for the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 2013. On a constant currency basis, net sales, excluding precious metal content, were essentially flat when compared to the same period a year ago.

Operating income increased $4.2 million compared to the same period 2013, primarily due to lower expenses in implant and laboratory businesses.

On a constant currency basis, net sales, excluding precious metal content, increased 3.0% when compared to the same period of 2013. The growth was primarily related to increased sales of consumable medical device and dental specialty products.

Operating income improved $3.2 million during the three months ended March 31, 2014 compared to 2013 primarily due to lower expenses in the healthcare business.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Except as noted below, there have been no other significant material changes to the critical accounting policies as disclosed in the Company's Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Three months ended March 31, 2014

Cash flow from operating activities during the three months ended March 31, 2014 was $64.6 million compared to $36.1 million during the three months ended March 31, 2013. The improvement in the first quarter cash from operations of $29.8 million was primarily the result of substantially lower cash taxes paid for the quarter ended as compared to the year ago period. The Company's cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments decreased by $19.1 million to $55.8 million during the quarter ended March 31, 2014.

For the quarter ended March 31, 2014, the number of days for sales outstanding in accounts receivable increased by five days to 61 days as compared to 56 days at December 31, 2013. On a constant currency basis, the number of days of sales in inventory increased by six days to 120 days at March 31, 2014 as compared to 114 days at December 31, 2013. The Company has strategically increased inventory in a few businesses as part of transition plans associated with anticipated operational changes. The Company anticipates that inventory levels may continue to increase slightly in 2014 before gradually returning to more normal levels by the end of 2015.

Investing activities during the first three months of 2014 include capital expenditures of $25.3 million and the acquisition of intellectual property rights for $1.3 million. The Company expects capital expenditures to be approximately $120.0 million for the full year 2014.

At March 31, 2014, the Company had authorization to maintain up to 34.0 million shares of treasury stock under the stock repurchase program as approved by the Board of Directors. Under this program, the Company repurchased 0.9 million shares during the first quarter for $40.4 million. As of March 31, 2014, the Company held 21.0 million shares of treasury stock. The Company received proceeds of $4.2 million as a result of the exercise of 0.1 million of stock options during the three months ended March 31, 2014.

The Company's total borrowings decreased by a net $7.4 million during the three months ended March 31, 2014, which includes an increase of $3.1 million due to exchange rate fluctuations on debt denominated in foreign currencies. The Company refinanced a portion of the first required payment of $75.0 million under the Private Placement Notes due February 2016 by issuing commercial paper and results in a net increase of $64.9 million to short-term borrowings. The second required payment of $100.0 million under the Private Placement Notes is due in February 2015 and has been classified as current on the balance sheet. At March 31, 2014, the Company's ratio of total net debt to total capitalization was 35.9% compared to 35.2% at December 31, 2013. The Company defines net debt as total debt, including current and long-term portions, less cash and cash equivalents and total capitalization as the sum of net debt plus equity.

Under its five-year multi-currency revolving credit agreement, the Company is able to borrow up to $500.0 million through July 27, 2016. The facility is unsecured and contains certain affirmative and negative covenants relating to the operations and financial condition of the Company. The most restrictive of these covenants pertain to asset dispositions and prescribed ratios of indebtedness to total capital and operating income plus depreciation and amortization to interest expense. At March 31, 2014, the Company was in compliance with these covenants. The Company also has available an aggregate $500.0 million under a U.S. dollar commercial paper facility. The five-year revolver serves as a back-up to the commercial paper facility, thus the total available credit under the commercial paper facility and the multi-currency revolving credit facilities in the aggregate is $500.0 million. At March 31, 2014, outstanding borrowings were $164.6 million under the multi-currency revolving facility.

The Company also has access to $77.4 million in uncommitted short-term financing under lines of credit from various financial institutions. The lines of credit have no major restrictions and are provided under demand notes between the Company and the lending institutions. At March 31, 2014, the Company had $6.6 million outstanding under these short-term lines of credit. At March 31, 2014, the Company had total unused lines of credit related to the revolving credit agreement and the uncommitted short-term lines of credit of $406.3 million.

At March 31, 2014, the Company held $79.4 million of precious metals on consignment from several financial institutions. The consignment agreements allow the Company to acquire the precious metal at market rates at a point in time which is approximately the same time and for the same price as alloys are sold to the Company's customers. In the event that the financial institutions would discontinue offering these consignment arrangements, and if the Company could not obtain other comparable arrangements, the Company may be required to obtain third party financing to fund an ownership position in the required precious metal inventory levels.

At March 31, 2014, the majority of the Company's cash and cash equivalents were held outside of the United States. Most of these balances could be repatriated to the United States, however, under current law, would potentially be subject to U.S. federal income tax, less applicable foreign tax credits. Historically, the Company has generated more than sufficient operating cash flows in the United States to fund domestic operations. Further, the Company expects on an ongoing basis, to be able to finance domestic and international cash requirements, including capital expenditures, stock repurchases, debt service, operating leases and potential future acquisitions, from the funds generated from operations and amounts available under its existing credit facilities. The Company intends to finance the current portion of long-term debt due in 2014 utilizing the available commercial paper and the revolving credit facilities as well as other sources of credit.

There have been no material changes to the Company's scheduled contractual cash obligations disclosed in its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013.
